WEDNESDAY - JULY 7, 1869

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

FOR STATE TREASURER,
JAMES W. TATE
OF FRANKLIN.

No Nomination.

The Democratic Convention held at the Court House on Monday, adjourned without nominating a candidate for the Legislature. We regret that this ill-advised course and fear that the Democracy of Shelby will have serious cause to deplore it.

If the anti-convention, anti-nominating policy is adopted by our friends and obtains the sanction of the party generally in Kentucky, Democracy will have paved the way for its own dissolution. Paradoxical as it seems, the strength of Democracy in Kentucky seems to be its greatest weakness.

We are confident that the policy of open races between Democratic candidates in the policy of disorganization, and will work the ruin of the party if persisted in. Having expressed our disapproval of the course adopted by our county convention, we ask the people to remember the prediction we have made in regard to it, and at the close of the canvass note the result, as upon the experience obtained and hereafter abide by the time honored usages and practices of the party.

The Washington National Intelligencer, after an existence of sixty-nine years, suspended publication last week, from financial embarrassment. This Journal, in the days of the old Whig party, was a power in the land. Under the old regime it was regarded as high authority, and was unquestionably one of the purest and best political Journals ever published in the United States. More recently the Intelligencer was the official mouth piece of Andrew Johnson, and through his influence it was prolonged. But the present Chief Magistrate of the nation is not disposed to sustain anything or anybody that supported Mr. Johnson, and the Intelligencer was compelled to "yield up the ghost." Gen. Grant has found a willing tool in Forney's Chronicle, and that Journal is now regarded as the official organ of the Administration. Forney is notoriously corrupt and is just the man to do the bidding of his imperial master.

The Washington correspondent of the Cincinnati Commercial informs us that W. P. Taney, a clerk in the Surgeon General's office, lately married to Annie Surratt, and now on a bridal tour, has been discharged from his position. The correspondent intimates that the only reason to be assigned for his discharge, is that he married the daughter of a woman whom the government murdered. If this be true, there is no language in which an American citizen could express his contempt for the perpetrators of the outrage. It is past all belief and beyond all expression. Surely after having murdered in cold blood, the mother of this poor girl, the great government of the United States will not undertake to starve the child. The act is too base—too contemptibly base and malignant—to be credited. Even the depraved wretches who stood fearless about the gallows when Mrs. Surratt died, could hardly be guilty of such a mean, despicable pursuit of her orphan child.

The Senate of the Fenian Brotherhood at Pittsburgh, have issued an address to the American people in which they ask their sympathy and assistance, on the ground that at least fifteen millions of Americans have Irish blood in their veins and that Ireland has been the natural ally of America from the time of the Revolution to the present day, while England has been a persistent enemy of the Republic, as is shown by her hostile action during the late rebellion.

A fearful disaster occurred at Carmarthen, Wales on Thursday, during the carriage of some packages of nitrolycerine from the harbour to the quarries. The material exploded on the way, and the cart, horses, and men attending them, were blown to atoms. A railway station near the scene of explosion, was torn to pieces. A village about a quarter of a mile distant was much damaged by the shock, which caused great consternation among the inhabitants. Four men were killed by the explosion. So says a cable telegram of the 1st inst.

The Treasury Department on the First commenced its new programme, by buying one million dollars' worth of bonds, and on Thursday, July 8, will sell one million dollars in gold. After that date it will alternate weekly, with the purchase of one million dollars in bonds, one week, and the sale of one million dollars in gold the next week.

The third party in the French Corps Legislatif propose to introduce a motion declaring the necessity which exists for satisfying the public feeling by granting to the public a more intimate association in the direction of affairs. And so, while we are drifting to despotism, old despots are liberalizing.

The Sunday School Picnic.

JULY 3. The day was calm, the day was beautiful, for the sun of Austerlitz with its golden face and bright beams shined majesticly on the quiet town of Shelbyville. But it was not Napoleon's army marching to battle and to victory.

"They have fought their last fight."

But Col. Marion Taylor on that bright day gathers up from church to church, the children of the Sabbath Schools and gallantly leading them through the quiet town, he conducts them to beautiful woods, to cool breezes, to icy waters, to swings and play grounds, to more music and sweet songs, to eloquent speeches and rich tables. It was a happy day, faces were bright, and clothes were clean, expectation was high, hearts joyous spirits were buoyant, wrinkles were smooth and the lame leaped for joy. The Col. leads, the band plays, the children merrily march; parents and citizens follow.

After singing, which was conducted by the loveliest and admiring Mrs. Frazier, the Rev. Dr. Mathews offered an eloquent and appropriate prayer. Again the voice of singing is heard, then the first orator of the day, Mr. J. C. Beckham delivered a goodoration historical and uniform, rhetorical and feeling, with well measured periods, good diction and truly appropriate and adjusted to the occasion. We asked ourselves if anything could be more appropriate.

Mr. Thomas Beard, second on the list of orators was announced. But a youth, but little time to prepare, he stands before his looking listening audience. His voice mellow, his face meek, his manner not assuming, his gestures few and appropriate, his subject well arranged, his though good, his language classic and ornate, he carried us back to hard fought and to bloody fields, to victory and independence of our arms and land. Again was Washington and his band immortalized before us. Touching were his remarks to the young. The writer felt like young Beard had celebrated the day; true, beautiful and good was this oration.

Rev. Mr. Spruell talks to the children as a father, to all he familiarly talks, and makes the children feel that all the marching and music the songs and singers, the plays and speeches, the banners and the feast, all are for them. Let them remember that day and his advice will then do them good all the days of their lives.

Capt. Wm. Stanley spoke next. I am glad he made us an extemporaneous speech. I know not how many flowers he had and how nicely they were arranged but his impromptu speech reached the highest expectation, and if he had given us his flowers pulled an adjusted day or so before, they could have done no more than satisfy us. But this shows the General and the man; pushed for time, and the ground already covered that he had worked out at leisure by the three speakers preceding him, he improvises, he originates, then and there those thoughts that breathe, and those words that burn, and speaks that speech that comes sparkling from the mind, warm from the heart, eloquent from the tongue, dripping from the fingers, driven from the nerves, beaming on the countenance and flashing in the eye. His Webster's description of eloquence: he was in earnest. Well we were intellectually erinated.

Now Mr. George Armstrong the prince of landlords has a table indescribably good, and the host physically hungry, literally rush to be "verammed with food." The writer came like a father to his favorite disciple and emulated, and spit and went to a second table and ate chicken and oysters, sold at $2 to 4¢ for fair; 5 to 5½ for good 5½ to 6½ for best butchers stuff. Hogs, well fat and choice lots sell at $2 to 9¢ ordinary and fair from 7 to 8½ Shropshire choice 3½¢; ordinary and fair, $1 to $2 75 per head; choice hams, $2 to $3 per ham.

LOUISVILLE LIVE STOCK MARKET.—The Courier Journal of Louisville reports cattle selling at $1 to 3¢ for common; 4 to 4½ for fair; 5 to 5½ for good 5½ to 6½ for best butchers stuff. Hogs, well fat and choice lots sell at $2 to 9¢ ordinary and fair from 7 to 8½ Shropshire choice 3½¢; ordinary and fair, $1 to $2 75 per head; choice hams, $2 to $3 per ham.

BEAUTY.—The N. Y. Tribune dedicates its tribute to the memory of Henry J. Raymond, Late editor and publisher of the N. Y. Times, as follows:

Respectfully,
A WIDE AWAKE AND SLEEPY OSUER.

THE Shelby County Farmer Club have sent a report from a committee consisting of T. O. Shackleford and J. D. Guttie upon cheese making. They report in favor of establishing a cheese factory in that county. The committee states that the factories in this portion of the State are in a prosperous condition, and advises the Shelby county folks that from the surplus milk in that county an abundance of good and wholesome food can be made. The committee is right. There is a large and growing demand for cheese it's a most healthy and nutritious food, and is, too a very cheap one and if Shelby county would put into operation a dozen factories she would find a demand for all the cheese that would be made at most remunerative prices.—Central Ky., has not yet seen enough cheese factories to consume the surplus milk and supply the local demand for cheese. We are glad to see every indication of interest being taken in cheese manufacture by our farmers. We are thoroughly convinced that there is an abundance of money in it for them. Ky., Statesman.

HAIL VIGOR.—In common with many others we have felt a lively interest in the investigation which Dr. Ayer has been making to discover the causes of failure of the hair, and to provide a remedy. His researches are said to have been much more thorough and exhaustive than any ever made before. The result is now before us under the name of Ayer's Hair Vigor. We shall give it a trial, and with full satisfaction. It equals our most favorable anticipations. Our gray hairs have disappeared, or resumed their original color; and a visible crop of silken hair has started on a part of the scalp which was entirely bald.—Democrat Abingdon, (Va.)

Gen. Sam. E. Clegg announced himself as the workingman's candidate for Governor of Ohio. He says he is sure of the nomination unless he is beaten out of it by jealous Democratic politicians.

The Great American Cooking Stove.

Pursuant to call of the County Committee, the delegates from the various precincts met at the Court House in Shelbyville on Monday July 5th. The convention was called to order by Judge J. L. Caldwell, who made a brief statement as to the purpose of the convention. The Convention then went into an election of officers, which resulted in the choice of Thos. W. Hinton, as Chairman, and M. T. Carpenter as Secretary. On motion of W. W. Parker the credentials and names of delegates were presented as follows to wit:

SHELBYVILLE—7 votes: H. G. Cardwell, J. D. Beard, M. T. Carpenter, Wm. Harsham, G. W. Stuart, John Robinson, John Ad Middleton.

CLAYVILLAGE—1 vote: Adam Middleton, O. P. Jasper, D. F. Clark, Thos. Cutcher.

DOAKS—4 votes: Wm Allen, Wm D. Calloway, Thomas W. Hinton, J. C. Booker.

SIMPSONVILLE—no delegates.

JONES—3 votes: R. T. Courtney, W. Dulin, W. H. Miller.

HARRISONVILLE—2 votes: L. T. Rucker, W. E. Cook.

HARDINSBURG—2 votes: W. W. Parker, Moses Perkins, W. H. Bass, James Bullard, J. M. Lucas.

After some preliminary motions, J. C. Brown Jr., moved that the chair take the sense of the Convention as to the propriety of making a nomination.

Mr. Thomas Beard, second on the list of orators was announced. But a youth, but little time to prepare, he stands before his looking listening audience. His voice mellow, his face meek, his manner not assuming, his gestures few and appropriate, his subject well arranged, his thought good, his language classic and ornate, he carried us back to hard fought and to bloody fields, to victory and independence of our arms and land. Again was Washington and his band immortalized before us. Touching were his remarks to the young. The writer felt like young Beard had celebrated the day; true, beautiful and good was this oration.

Mr. John Ad. Middleton offered as a substitute the following resolution.

Resolved, That in the opinion of this Convention it is not necessary to the interest of the Democratic party of this County that this Convention should make a nomination for a candidate for the legislature. After some discussion upon the substitute, a motion was made that the Convention extend to the Simpsonville precinct, altogether without delegates present, the privilege of voting on this substitute through their chairman Jas. McCown Esq. Upon which quite a discussion arose in which Messrs. Bass, Parker, Beard, Middleton, Caldwell, Carpenter and Robinson participated in favor of extending the courtesy and Messrs. Brown and Calloway against. The motion being submitted in favor of extending the courtesy and there upon the vote being taken on the substitute, resulted in a vote of 22 for, to 14 against.

On motion the Convention adjourned sine die.

T. W. HINTON, Chairman.

MILTON T. CARPENTER, Sec'y.

I am glad he made us an extemporaneous speech. I know not how many flowers he had and how nicely they were arranged but his impromptu speech reached the highest expectation, and if he had given us his flowers pulled an adjusted day or so before, they could have done no more than satisfy us. WM. BALLARD.—Wm. Ballard, son of Mr. Harry Ballard of this county, was the first orator at the opening of Commencement Exercises of Kentucky University. His subject was the "Spirit of Progress," and was delivered with eloquence and ability.

FESTIVAL.—A Festival for the benefit of the Methodist Church at Cleevage will be held on Thursday night, July 1st, for the "grown people" and on Friday night for the children. The Festival will be at the residence of Mrs. Moyen near Clayville. It is to be hoped there will be upon both evenings an appreciative attendance.

REV. A. F. FREEMAN.—We regret to learn that Rev. A. F. Freeman, pastor of St. James Church, has accepted a call from the Episcopal Church at Vincennes and will shortly remove to that place.

MR. FREEMAN.—Mr. Freeman is very highly esteemed by this community and in his departure has the affection and best wishes of an exceedingly large circle of friends.

ANNOUNCING.—In announcing last week the marriage of Mr. Ed Nelson and Miss Lida Campbell, we neglected to express our thanks to the fair bride for her remembrance of the printer. We now thankfully acknowledge the reception of a share of the wedding cake and take this opportunity to wish the happy pair a life of perfect joy, without a cloud upon their pathway.

MESSRS. LAYSON & CO.—We have just received from the manufacturers a new hearse that surpasses any we have ever seen. It is intended for young persons only, and the manufacturers seem to have desired to take some of the horrors from death by the exquisite taste with which they adorned and beautified the gem of art. Messrs. Layson & Co. evince sound judgement in keeping pace with the advance of the age in all that pertains to their vocation.

DWELLING HOUSE TO RENT.—These gentlemen have received a complete stock of Burial Cases and Caskets, selected with the excellent taste that characterizes all their purchases.

RENT.—I offer for rent to a respectable tenant my dwelling House on Main Street with Furniture and appurtenances as they stand. House in perfect repair, (having been painted the last year) and possessed of every convenience for living in comfort.

REV. A. F. FREEMAN.—During my absence from Shelbyville, any one desiring to examine or to purchase my residence (advertised in this paper), will apply for information to Robert C. Davis, Esq.

J. W. DODD.

Notice.

The stockholders of the Shelby County Agricultural and Mechanical Association are hereby notified to meet at Shelbyville on Saturday, June 26, at 2 o'clock, to take into consideration the propriety of subscribing stock in the Shelby County Importing Stock Company.

ADAM MIDDLETON, President.

L. W. SMITH, Secy.

Shelbyville, June 19, 1869.

GET THE BEST.—The Climax Mower acknowledged the most simple, complete and durable Machine out. Don't buy until you see the Climax at H. FRAZIER & SON'S.

GROCERIES.—We are now prepared to supply the Farmers and citizens of Shelby with all kinds of Groceries, viz: Sugar, Coffee, Tea, Molasses, &c., on short notice and at Louisville Prices. All orders left with us will be promptly attended to.

BRIGHT & BRO.

LOSERS.—In Shelbyville, on Thursday 17th, at the M. E. Church, South, or on Main St., a Pocket Book, containing Twenty Dollars. The finder will be suitably rewarded by leaving it at this office.

E. & W. JESSE.—E. & W. Jesse, on Hempridge 8 miles south-east of Shelbyville, on the Frankfort and Bardstown road, have two thoroughbred Bull calves for sale. There are more in the neighborhood.

CANNEL COAL.—This coal is becoming exceedingly popular in this market and our experience warrants us in asserting that it justly merits the high opinion in which it is held. Those who use it consider it far superior to other coal for cooking and other purposes, not only because of its cleanliness but for its economy. Unlike other coal it burns to ashes. Mr. Chas. J. Morton is supplying the Cannel Coal and we advise our readers to give it a trial.

ICE CREAM.—Hastings & Hollenbach have opened their saloon, and will constantly on hand and make to order Ice Cream, Water, Ices &c. Will furnish Parties and families on short notice and send to any part of the city.

THE CHAMPION MOWER.—The Programme of the Shelby Fair will show a marked increase in the value of the Premiums offered. Among other extraordinary Premiums we notice one of $500 for the finest and best stallion or mare for all purposes.

Remember the Fair begins August 24th, and continues four days.

WANTED—AGENTS.—By the Mutual Life Insurance company of Chicago, a competent Local Agent in Shelbyville. Agents wanted in every county in Kentucky. Address S. F. Smith, General Agent, Shelbyville.

THE AMERICAN AND PLANTER COOK.—Cook stoves will be found at Churchills.

T. W. MCGILL.—T. W. McGill is an authorized General Agent for the SHELBYVILLE. He will receive Advertisements, Subscriptions and Job Work, and will attend to collecting accounts due the office.

A FRESH SUPPLY OF DRESSES.—Just received from New York. They are beautiful. Call and see them, at O. Smith & Bro's.

F. KRUEGER'S CHEAP BOOT AND SHOE STORE.

F. KRUEGER.—F. Krueger has received a well selected stock of women, misses' and children's shoes and gaiters of the best manufacture. He is a shoemaker of experience and knows what his buys and sells. If you want good Shoes and Boots go to his Store and he will suit you in quality as well as price.

IRON DOUBLE SHOVEL PLOWS.—Mr. Thomas B. Tucker is manufacturing these celebrated Plows at his shop on the Eminence & Shelbyville pike. The plow is strong, the draft is light and it can be managed easily by a boy. It has three changes of shovels, can be changed to suit the soil at all ages. Is valuable for seeding purposes, as it leaves the ground in good condition to stand the winter, and is not as liable to wash as in single plowing. Send handbills.

BEAUTIFUL POPLINS.—At 25 to 50 cts. Silk, Grenadines, Mosebilles, Samelines and a variety of other goods fresh from New York, very low at O. Smith & Bro's.

ALL THOSE INDEBTED TO THE LATE FIRM OF KRUGER & CRAPSTER.—Will come forward and settle by cash or note immediately. Those that fail to come right away will find their account in the hands of an officer for collection.

KRUEGER & CRAPSTER.—Mr. B. H. Crapster, whose conspicuous advertisement appears in another column, is creating a little excitement by the prices at which he is offering his large and fresh stock of Boots and Shoes. His custom-made work is of superior quality and warranted. Mr. Hutchings, of this house, is acknowledged to be one of the best practical shoemakers in this part of the country. Our readers will find upon examination that we do not overstate the case when we say that greater inducements in this line of business have ever been offered to the community both in price and quality of work.

WHISKY FOR SALE.—I have for sale 200 barrels of the best Copper Whisky, and will constantly on hand a full supply of the best Copper Distilled Whisky. I will furnish to retail dealers low for cash. You may rely on getting good pure Whisky. Give me a call at the Stage Office, Shelbyville, Kentucky. J. J. RAMSEY.

BRADY'S FAMILY BITTERS.—Call at Robb & Hope's for this great and invaluable preparation.

FOR SALE.—Some pure Burksire Boars and Geels. T. G. CRUTCHER.

SELLING OUT AT COST FOR CASH.—Great attractions at the firm of Robb & Hope, will please call and settle on or before the 10th of July, without further notice.

THANKS.—Mr. I. A. Payne, our efficient Town Marshal, has placed us under obligations for the reception of some choice honey. Payne knows how to treat printers as well as prisoners.
